Webinar Description

If you have taken on a new position and are concerned about what you don't know – you're in good company. Research shows supervisors, managers, and leaders moving into a new role only get a minuscule amount of the training needed to be successful in the role. On the job learning is expected – but you don't know what you don't know. This is the place to start. This webinar provides a structured approach to strategies and steps needed to build a solid foundation in the first 3 months that will set the stage for your future success. If you have been in the role for more than 3 months – don't worry, many of the strategies and ideas will be successful after 90 days and can be applied even if you're an old hand.
