Webinar Description

The time has come for your organization to look at switching to International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). With that in mind, it is more important than ever to ensure that you are equipped with the skills and knowledge to be able to lead your organization through the changes. While most financial professionals understand the basic philosophy of IFRS, many are unsure exactly how to convert the various parts of the financial statements.

Join us for a unique session that walks you through the step-by-step processes involved in converting your balance sheet.

This session will concentrate on the entire balance sheet, line by line, and will examine what changes will need to be made, and what the consequences of these changes will be for the company now and into the future.
