Webinar Description

Learn to overcome inaction and fear in team members and to better motivate them to take initiative, take smarter risks, and commit to giving their best in all endeavors. During this workshop, you will develop competencies needed to establish and maintain trust and credibility with all of your team members. You'll evaluate your level of trust towards others, identify critical behaviors for developing positive relationships and learn specific strategies and tactics to create greater trust, repair broken trust, and lead your team to optimum results.

What skills and attributes does it take for you to create a culture of trust? Do you recognize a job well done immediately after it happens? Would you like to learn how to induce healthy “challenge stress”? Managers who empower their employees to choose their work patterns, habits, and job design develop more productive employees. When was the last time someone complimented you on your communication skills? Do you know what it takes to intentionally build relationships and facilitate whole-person growth? Come laugh, listen, and learn as Chris DeVany teaches us about the steps we need to take every day to make trust-building work for you, your direct reports, your team, and your organization!
