

Webinar on

How To Write And Manage A Change Control System

Learning Objectives

- Demonstrate how to write/execute a Change control proposal, assessment and close out*
- Learn how to properly categorize a change*
- Identify what constitutes a change*
- Discuss the Establishment of a change control board*

This course will provide attendees with the proper tools and information to build a robust change control quality system that will withstand the scrutiny of an FDA or Regulatory Inspection.

PRESENTED BY:

Danielle DeLucy, MS, is the owner of ASA Training and Consulting, LLC which provides Pharmaceutical and Biologics based companies with training and quality systems assistance in order to meet Regulatory compliance. Currently, Danielle assists companies who are faced with warning letters, consent decrees and those wishing to improve compliance establish more robust quality systems so that the company can succeed.

On-Demand Webinar

Duration : 60 Minutes

Price: $200

Webinar Description

This webinar will help attendees understand the fundamental change control steps and processes. It will focus on change proposals, assessments, execution and final implementation. The importance of proper planning, critical thinking skills, and coordination of all change activities will also be discussed.

This course will provide attendees with the proper tools and information to build a robust change control quality system that will withstand the scrutiny of an FDA or Regulatory Inspection.

Who Should Attend ?

All levels of management

Quality professionals

Pharmaceutical professionals involved in the manufacture of products

To register please visit:

www.grceducators.com
support@grceducators.com
740 870 0321