Webinar Description

Most of our daily activities are a form of habit, we do the same thing over and over. Think of how you brush your teeth. It's habit, right? There is one habit you can develop that will change your life, improve your company and get you dynamic results in virtually every area of your life. That habit is what this webinar is all about: The Power of One to One Time.

Imagine having the confidence, coordination, and communication of an elite SEAL team. That is our objective. Elite teams don't just happen, it takes time, repetition and expert execution. There is nothing more valuable to building another person than the sincere, caring, thoughtful and accountable one at one time. It is a form of coaching.

Why Should Attend ?

This habit is already used by successful companies to differentiate themselves from their competition. You too will become unique in your industry, peer group and have the ability to obliterate any and all competition. The power is in unlocking the potential of your people. You cannot do it alone. The necessary skill you need to use this habit is available to you in this webinar. You will gradually enhance your ability and impact by practice. The core of effectiveness is quality communication skills. We will break down each element to bite size pieces so you are ready to run with the ability at a fast pace.

You will learn a habit that will transform every person you directly work with. In the time it will permeate your entire organization. The result will be improved communication. Clarity of purpose will be defined by each member of your team. Dynamic results will develop that will translate to an improved bottom line.
