Webinar Description

2018 brought California a variety of updated employment laws. This is a primer to new California employment law and an update to changes to the existing laws for 2018. Among the various topics will be updates to the Fair Pay Act and a brief summary of new rules regarding background checks, and wage and hour laws. There will also be a brief discussion of the federal immigration laws as they are being applied to employers in California.

Each year, California makes changes to the legal and regulatory framework affecting employers. Additionally, there are new federal regulations that affect employers across the country as well as in California. This program is designed to update responsible personnel about the most significant changes that affect California employers and the employment legal and regulatory landscape.
