Webinar Description

In this practical webinar, you will learn how the Tax Credits and Jobs Act incentivizes paid Family and Medical Leave. We will also discuss the similarities and differences between the FMLA and the new Section 45S. We will provide you with analysis via examples of when leave qualifies for the credit in your 1st and succeeding years of eligibility.

In 1993 the US Congress enacted the Family and Medical Leave Act. In 2017 the TCJA permitted certain paid leave under FMLA to be available for a tax credit. The guidelines are complicated as to employer and employee eligibility. We have the answers to your questions.
