Webinar Description

The governance of any enterprise is only as good as its board of directors... and that board is only as effective as its chairman. Here are the secrets of the world's best board leaders.

“You can't improve what you can't measure” applies in the boardroom as much as in other areas of business. Boards of directors are increasingly a critical, functional part of running companies. Yet the regular evaluation and benchmarking that's become such a part of human resources and executive pay-setting worldwide remains uncommon for boards.

In most of the world's boardrooms, evaluation is still not a common practice, even fewer evaluate their individual members, and fewer still do either well. Let's discuss a simple, but effective process for launching your board evaluation, and getting it right.
