

Webinar on

Harassment, Bullying And Discrimination In The Workplace

Learning Objectives

Participants will recognize the different types of harassment and abuse, Discover the context into which some of these behaviours occurred in the past. You will be able to identify strategies for preventing being accused of harassment or abuse in the future and explore new ways of interacting with each other in the workplace as well as in work-related social activities.

This webinar covers all aspects of harassment, abusive behaviour, bullying and discrimination in the workplace.

PRESENTED BY:

ArLyne Diamond, Ph.D. is an internationally recognized Leadership, Management, Professional Development, and Organizational Development (O-D) consultant specializing in people and processes in the workplace. Multifaceted, Dr. Diamond has extensive experience in a wide range of disciplines (business, education, management, marketing, business ownership, psychology and some economics and law as well).

On-Demand Webinar

Duration : 120 Minutes

Price: $200

Webinar Description

It covers all aspects of harassment, abusive behaviour, bullying and discrimination in the workplace. There are many examples of subtle abuses as well as discussion about the more obvious ones. Today's climate, thanks in part to the #Me-too movement will also be discussed. Participants will learn about Quid Pro Quo and the meaning of hostile work environment. We will bust some common myths and offer remedies to those responsible for handling complaints.

To register please visit:

www.grceducators.com
support@grceducators.com
740 870 0321