

Webinar on

Complying With U.S. Customs Laws

Learning Objectives

- Learn what are the basic import documents, Know the steps of the entry process*
- What is reasonable care?, Learn what is Antidumping and Countervailing?*
- Understand the relationship between CBP and importers that is characterized by informed compliance*
- Learn what are basic Customs compliance tools and how to uses them such as, Customs Rulings and explanatory notes?*

•

Recognize and be mindful of Customs Red Flags, such as Customs Request for Information

Understand the Rules of Origin and China Section 301 actions,
Explore Free Trade Agreements

Understand what records must be retained and for how long,
Understand the basics of valuation

Learn the fundamentals of classification including the General Rules of Interpretation

Learn the consequence of violating Customs laws

•

Participants will learn and apply the mechanics of classification of how to classify their products.

PRESENTED BY:

Jo-Anne Daniels is the President of Trade Resources & Associates, a firm of experts in cross-border transactions, global trade and logistics matters. Ms. Daniels is an experienced seminar and webinar speaker, corporate trainer and published authority in trade compliance and logistics, her career spans over 25 years in international trade, logistics, and transportation employed with multinational corporations, transportation carriers, freight forwarders, and airlines.

On-Demand Webinar

Duration : 60 Minutes

Price: $200

Webinar Description

Participants will learn the basics of U.S. Customs laws and how to develop a Customs compliance program at their company. Participants will learn and apply the mechanics of classification of how to classify their products.

The program will discuss all the key elements of a solid import program. The participants should be able to return to their office and enhance their import compliance program or develop and roll out a new one. The webinar will help the participants feel more confident with importing and how to communicate the importance of complying with U.S. Customs laws, take proactive steps to review their program based upon what is learned and if necessary, take corrective action to ensure compliance with Customs laws.

Who Should Attend ?

Logistics

Shipping

Import/Export

Supply Chain Management

Operations

Finance

Why Should Attend ?

This webinar is designed to provide a basic understanding of the fundamentals of U.S. Customs laws including what is the standard of Reasonable Care and the penalties for not exercising Reasonable Care. There will be an overview of rules of classification, valuation, country of origin, how to prepare proper documentation and recordkeeping regulations.

To register please visit:

www.grceducators.com
support@grceducators.com
740 870 0321